Alexandria Gazette NEW BOOKS

TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 1.

Friends of Long Ago. When I sit in the twilight gloaming. And the busy streets grow still, I dream of the wide green meadows, And the old house on the hill. I can see the roses blooming About the doorway low. Again my heart gives greeting To the friends of long ago-Dear long ago!

I can see my mother sitting. With life's scowflakes in her hair. And she smiles above her knitting, And her face is saintly fair. And I see my father reading From the Bible on his keec, And again I hear him praying As he used to pray for me-So long ago!

I see all the dear old faces Of the boys and girls at home. As I saw them in the dear old days, Before we learned to roam, And I sing the old songs over With the friends I used to know, And my heart forgets its sorrrows In its dream of long ago! Dear long age!

How widely our feet have wandered From our old home's teader ties. Some are beyond the ocean, And some are beyond the skies. My heart grows sad with thicking, Of the friends I used to know; Perhaps I shall meet in heaven All the loved ones of long ago. Dear long ago !
